

Association Poesia e Solidarietà (Poetry and Solidarity)

in collaboration with

International Studies and Documentation Centre for Youth Culture
Department of Humanities, University of Trieste

With a cooperation fund of the CEI-Central European Initiative

OCTOBER 3-5, 2014 – TRIESTE (ITALY)

WORLD YOUTH FORUM “RIGHT TO DIALOGUE”
&
YOUTH MEETING OF CENTRAL EUROPEAN COUNTRIES
“RIGHT TO DIALOGUE”

7TH EDITION

“Europe, Non-Europe: Knowledge, Identity, Dialogue and European Citizenship”

(Debates, Artistic and Cultural Events, Friendship)

The financial support of the Central European Initiative fosters a numerous participation of young people coming from the Central European Countries.

Partnership

Youth National Forum (Italy)

Univerza na Primorskem / University of Primorska (Koper / Capodistria - SLO)

European Youth Press

Centre for Study, Training and Communication on European Union and Global Governance -

Scuola Superiore di Studi Sant’Anna di Pisa (Italy)

Italian-Polish Friendship Association

Rodnik Group for Russian-Ukrainian Friendship

Youth Forum of Corato (Bari, Italy)

Hellenic Foundation for Culture

Africa Friends Association

Call for papers released on April 2014

N. of applications submitted: 120

PROGRAMME

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 3 / 9.00

OPENING OF THE WORKS AND WELCOME ADDRESSES BY THE AUTHORITIES

1st Session

WHAT'S EUROPE? EUROPE HOW? EUROPEAN AND NOT EUROPEAN YOUNG PEOPLE FACING

10.00

Domenico Paganelli (Italy - President of the Youth Forum of Corato, Bari)
The Ventotene lesson

10.20

Ekaterina Kuznetsova (Russian Federation - Degree in Journalism, University of Leeds, UK / board member of European Youth Press)
Does being part of Europe mean being European?

10.40

Eneida Todhe (Albania - Degree in Interpretation and Translation Studies, University of Tirana / secretary of Initiative Group Alpbach Albania) and Oltjona Totoni (Albania - English professor at the Faculty of Economics, University of Tirana)
"European dream or non-European nightmare?"

DEBATE

11,20

Mimoza Telaku (Kosovo - PhD candidate in Conflict Management and Resolution, Ben Gurion University of the Negev, Israel)
The struggle between nationalism and European integration

11.40

Vladimir Bogoeski (FYROM / Germany - Degree in European and International Law, University of Bremen / adviser at the German Trade Union Federation)
EU Eastern enlargement from the worker's perspective – freedom of movement or forced migration?

12.00

Diana Cucos (Moldova - Researcher at the Department of International Relations, University of Moldova)

Perspectives on Intra-EU Mobility of Third-Country Nationals

DEBATE

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 3 / 16.30

“CITY / GLOBAL”

Meeting with Sergio Nava (journalist and deputy senior editor at Radio 24) and Luca Mori (researcher at the University of Verona and Member of the Scientific Board of the International Studies and Documentation Centre for Youth Culture-University of Trieste)

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 4 / 9.00-11.00

2nd Session

THEMATIC PANELS

1. EXPERIENCES, DREAMS, CRITICALITIES

A. AULA ...

Dana Đzafic (Bosnia and Herzegovina - Degree in Law, University of Sarajevo)

“Mission (im)possible: BiH on its way towards the EU”

Daniela Vacaretu (Romania / Denmark - Degree in Law, University of Copenhagen / project officer at Kompasnet NGO, Copenhagen)

The Danish dream

Adaleta Markez, (Bosnia and Herzegovina – Student of English Language and Literature at the University of Sarajevo)

Bosnia and Herzegovina in Europe

Ivana Čagalj (Croatia / Switzerland - Degree in English and Croatian Language)

Croatia – in and out of Europe

B. AULA...

Maria Vizdoaga (Moldova - Degree in National Law at the University of Moldova / Master in European Studies, Leiden University / program assistant at East Europe Foundation)

How do Moldovans perceive Europe or European Union?

Marija Martinović (Montenegro - Degree in International Law, University of Montenegro / degree in Italian Language and Literature, University of Montenegro / OTAN area coordinator for the political party Pozitivna Crna Gora)

From the waves of transition to Europe

Mariia Iemelianenko (Ukraine - Master in Public Administration / personal assistant at Ukrainian Philanthropists Forum NGO)

Prospects for Democracy, Stability and Europeanization in Ukraine

Maryna Rabinovych (Ukraine – Degree candidate of Law, University of Odessa)

Multilevel governance in the EU: lessons for decentralization of Ukraine

3rd Session

THEMATIC PANELS

DIALOGUE STRATEGIES: EXPECTATIONS AND COMMITMENT IN YOUTH

A. AULA...

Olha Luchka (Ukraine – Degree candidate at the Faculty of Law and Journalism, University of Lviv / executive secretary of the Independent Media Trade Union of Ukraine, Lviv branch)

Dialogue tools: practice of the Independent Media Trade Union of Ukraine

Marko Dimac (Slovenia - Student of Linguistic and Intercultural Mediation, University of Primorska)

EU at a crossroad: United in diversity against far-right movements, xenophobia and prejudice

Inga Kotlo (Bosnia and Herzegovina / Italia - Degree in Bosnian and English Language and Literature / translator and project assistant at Mostar's Human Rights Center)

Cultural policies in Croatia and Bosnia and Herzegovina: The Level of Compliance to International Standards and Contribution to Social Cohesion.

Aldo Bove (Italia), Studente

Piccole città, grandi idee

B. AULA...

Petya Ivanova (Bulgaria - Degree in International Relations / member of Aegee-Sofia)

Foreigners in Bulgaria

Riccardo Vecellio Segate (Italy - Academic Degree in Piano Performance, Music Conservatory of Verona / Student of Geopolitical Relations at the Faculty of Law, University of Verona)

The educational experience of the “African summer school / Business incubator 4 Africa”

Alina Virstiuk (Ukraine - Student)

Mediaculture as a driver force for democracy: the line between journalism and propaganda

Alexander Walzl (Italy - Student of Law, University of Warwick)

The Adonnino Report “A People’s Europe” on Media Technologies

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 4 – 11.30

PARALLEL PANELS' OUTCOMES AND DEBATE

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 4 – 15.30

4th Session

INSTITUTIONS AND PROJECTS: YOUTH PRESENCE, ROLES, RESULTS

THEMATIC PANELS

A. AULA....

Lucia Lukotkova (Slovakia - Student of Political Sciences, University of Vienna)

How important commitment to youth is...

Marcos Nhapulo (Mozambique – PhD candidate, University of Gent)

The role of youth in institutional cooperation

Georgi Filipov (Bulgaria - Degree in European Studies / president of Europe on the move NGO)

The Balkans – EU institutional process in EU member states and non-EU member states. The role of youth NGOs Europe

Olha Koshchiyenko (Ukraine / Hungary - Degree in Applied Linguistics, University of Lviv / Degree in International Relations, Central European University of Budapest)

Perception of Europe by young adults in Eastern and Western Ukraine: a comparative study

B. AULA...

Viktor Miloshevski (FYROM)

European Future, young Europeans through the prism of culture, dialogue and active participation

Federico Pisanu (Italy – Master degree in Management Engineering, Politecnico of Torino)

The social impact of student Non-Governmental Organizations in Europe: uniting active youth and creating a true European Integration

Inna Semenenko (Ukraine - Associated professor of Economics, Sustainable development and International Relations, University Volodymyr Dahl)

Pro-West or pro-East: young Ukrainians choose their future

C. AULA...

Arjete Nezaj (Kosovo - Degree in Psychology)

Youth as a social position: cultural life in Kosovo

Aayushi Panchal (India – Degree candidate of Engineering)

“Global Youth”: EU and Indian young people in comparison

Amel Belguith (Tunisia – Post-degree master student of English)

Manipulation in Self-Development Discourse: A pragmatic analysis (in European and non European Culture)

Duy Duc Hoai Nguyen (Vietnam - Degree candidate in Marketing, Vietnam International University)

Individualism vs. collectivism: Cultures compared

5TH SESSION

WELL-BEING: CULTURAL AND ECONOMICAL STRATEGIES

Nadia Ahmad (Pakistan / Australia - Student of Economics, University of Quaid-e-Azam, Islamabad)

Well-being: cultural and economic strategies

Marcin Piekalkiewicz (Poland / Italy - PhD candidate at the Department of Economics, University of Siena)

Well-being of Europe and non-Europe. Happiness data in a comparative perspective

Ievgeniia Lytvyn, (Ukraine - PhD in Sociology, National Academy of Sciences, Kiev)

The impact of multiculturalism on the economic situation in Europe

Christabel Mwango (Zambia / Ukraine - Degree candidate in International Relations, University of Volyn)

Well-being: cultural and economic strategies

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 4 – 17.30

Plenary session

INTRODUCTION OF THE PARALLEL PANELS' OUTCOMES AND DEBATE

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 5 - 9,30

6th Session

INTANGIBLE CULTURAL HERITAGE: BORDERCROSSING MEMORIES AND COMPARISON
(LITERATURES, BIOGRAPHIES, STORIES, LANGUAGES)

THEMATIC PANELS

A. Aula ...

Rudina Canaj (Albania - Degree in Clinical psychology / founder of Dev-Aid, organization for human rights)

Multicultural Bridges

Analia Adorni (Argentina / Italia - Postgraduate certificate in Media and technologies for pictorial productions, National University Institute of Art, Buenos Aires)

European / non European woman artists

Jasmin Hasic (Bosnia and Herzegovina - PhD candidate in Political theories at LUISS, Milano)

The Politization of Ethnicity and National Identity: Political mobilization of the Bosnian Diaspora for the 2013 census

Plamena Popova (Bulgaria - Assistant professor of Cultural law, University of Library Studies)

Monuments vs. ideas: remarks on the “art” of protests in Bulgaria

B. Aula...

Serdar Seitaptiiev (Ukraine - Degree candidate at the Faculty of Medicine, University of Lviv / co-founder of Crimea Sos NGO)

Formation of a common identity: Ukrainian culture- Crimean Tatars culture- EU.

Reginald Taluah (Ghana - Master of Philosophy and English Literature, University of Ghana)

The haunting images of the West in Ghanaian creative arts: tradition vs. innovation

Sevim Tahir (Bulgaria – Degree candidate at the Academy of Sciences of Bulgaria, Institute for social Studies)

The clash of integration, non-integration narratives from minority –majority perspective: The case of Bulgarian Muslims

Yana Drumeva (Bulgaria / Italia – Degree at the Academy of fine arts, Bologna)

New European citizens. Our reality among social life, art and expectations

C. Aula...

Michalina Alina Nadolna (Poland - Student of Law, Adam Mickiewicz University, Warsaw)

Change and continuity: cultural betterment in the Republic of Poland and Ukraine (2004-2014)

Cornelia Neagoe (Romania, Student of Art theory)

Image, Imaginary and Imagination- Toward a European Identity

Amerbi Uzdenov (Russian Federation - Student of Tourism, University of Kabardian-Balkarian)

Caucasian culture in the context of European culture

Iuliia Kozhukhovska (Ukraine - Degree candidate at the Department for Hellenic studies, Taras Shevchenko University, Kiev)

The realization of the concept Journey in the integration processes: the pattern of Ukrainian and Greek ethno-linguistic consciousness

Ore 11,30

7th Session

Plenary session

INTERSECTIONS: BETWEEN LOCAL IDENTITIES AND INTEGRATION (EUROPE AND BEYOND)

Petya Yankova (Bulgaria - Degree in Linguistics, University of York / EVS volunteer at Platform Spartak, The Hague)

What is shared History?

INTRODUCTION OF THE PARALLEL PANELS' OUTCOMES AND DEBATE

SUNDAY OCTOBER 5TH – 17,30

TEATRO MIELA

THE GIFT OF CULTURES

FREE PERFORMANCES, READING, AND SPEECHES OF PARTICIPANTS

WITH THE PARTICIPATION OF THE ITALIAN-UKRAINIAN-RUSSIAN GROUP

RODNIK

Will take part to the Forum as panel moderators:

- Dr. Fabio Corigliano (University of Trieste, Faculty of political Sciences / International Study and Documentation Centre for Youth Culture)
- Dr. Toni Veneri (University of Trieste, International Study and Documentation Centre for Youth Culture / Gramsci Institute)
- Dr. Antonella Rizzo (researcher and anthropologist / University of Trieste, International Study and Documentation Centre for Youth Culture)
- Dr. Stefano Felician (National Youth Forum, Italy)
- Dr. Giuseppe Failla (National Youth Forum, Italy / University of Trieste, International Study and Documentation Centre for Youth Culture)
- Dr. Francesco Picozzo (Centre for Study, Training and Communication on European Union and global governance - Scuola Superiore di Studi Sant'Anna di Pisa)
- Giuseppe Maria Marrone (President of the Youth Forum of Foggia, Italy)